Diminished-order modeling: new approaches for computational. In ,  $w$  zero ( $\ddot{I}, 1$ ) is the time reaction of the gadget to a unit impulse carried out at time 0 and  $w$  2 ( $\ddot{I}, 1$ ) is the time response of the machine to an impulse of twice unit magnitude at time response functions constitute the memory of the gadget. If the system is linear, then  $w$  2 = 2 $w$  0 and  $h$  1 =  $w$  0, which is why the first-order kernel is referred to as the linear unit impulse reaction.
